- 10. (C) Article 213 — Article 213 gives the Governor ordinance-making power; Article 123 is the President's equivalent. An ordinance has the same force as an Act of the State Legislature.
- 11. (A) The President of India — Article 156(1) states that the Governor holds office during the pleasure of the President; his normal term of five years is subject to this.
- 12. (D) Pratibha Patil — Pratibha Patil was Governor of Rajasthan from 8 November 2004 to 23 June 2007 and then became the first woman President of India. Prabha Rau and Margaret Alva were the other women Governors of the State.
- 13. (B) Gurmukh Nihal Singh — Gurmukh Nihal Singh served 5 years and 166 days (1956-1962), the longest for any Governor of Rajasthan. Kalyan Singh and Sampurnanand each completed almost exactly five years.
- 14. (D) Haribhau Kisanrao Bagde — Haribhau Kisanrao Bagde was sworn in as Governor of Rajasthan on 31 July 2024, succeeding Kalraj Mishra, and continues in office as of 4 September 2026.

- 17. (C) Kalraj Mishra — Kalraj Mishra (September 2019 - July 2024) was Governor when the dispute over summoning the Assembly arose during the 2020 crisis; the session finally met on 14 August 2020.

- 19. (A) Air Chief Marshal Om Prakash Mehra — Air Chief Marshal O.P. Mehra, a former Chief of the Air Staff, was Governor of Rajasthan from 1982 to 1985 and later Governor of Maharashtra.
- 20. (A) Chief Minister of Maharashtra — Vasantdada Patil was a four-time Chief Minister of Maharashtra before his term as Governor of Rajasthan (1985-1987).
- 21. (B) the State universities of Rajasthan — By the statutes of the State universities the Governor is their Chancellor; this is a statutory, not a constitutional, function.
- 22. (C) Article 356 — Article 356 permits the President to assume the functions of a State government on receipt of a report from the Governor or otherwise. Article 352 is national emergency and Article 360 financial emergency.
- 23. (C) Four — President's Rule has been imposed four times in Rajasthan: 1967, 1977, 1980 and 1992-93. The government of Bhairon Singh Shekhawat was dismissed on two of these occasions.
- 24. (D) 1992-93 — The proclamation of 15 December 1992, following the Babri Masjid demolition, lasted until 4 December 1993 - about 354 days, the longest of the four spells.
- 25. (B) Consolidated Fund of the State — Article 158(3) provides that the Governor's emoluments and allowances are charged on the Consolidated Fund of the State and cannot be diminished during his term of office.
- 26. (A) I only — Only statement I is correct. The Governor cannot pardon a death sentence and has no power over court-martial sentences; both belong exclusively to the President under Article 72. The Governor may, however, suspend, remit or commute a death sentence.

- 27. (C) I, II and III — All three are correct. Article 157 lays down the age and citizenship requirement, Article 158 the conditions of office, and Article 156(3) the five-year term, subject always to the President's pleasure.
- 28. (A) I and II only — Statements I and II are correct. Man Singh II was the last Rajpramukh, not the first Governor; Gurmukh Nihal Singh became the first Governor on 1 November 1956. Man Singh II was later appointed Rajpramukh emeritus and then Ambassador to Spain.
- 29. (B) I, II and III — All three statements are correct. His tenure of 5 years and 166 days remains the longest for a Governor of Rajasthan.
- 30. (B) I and II only — Statements I and II are correct. Pratibha Patil was never Chief Minister of Maharashtra; she held State ministerial office and was Deputy Chairperson of the Rajya Sabha before becoming Governor of Rajasthan.
- 31. (D) I, II and III — All three are correct. The proviso to Article 213(1) requires the Governor to obtain the President's instructions where a Bill containing the same provisions would have needed the President's prior sanction or reservation.
- 32. (B) I, II and III — All three are correct. Shekhawat's governments were dismissed in February 1980 and December 1992, and the first proclamation of March 1967 followed the post-election deadlock during Sukhadia's tenure.
- 33. (D) I and II only — Statements I and II are correct. The Advocate General is appointed under Article 165 on the aid and advice of the Council of Ministers, not in the Governor's discretion.
- 34. (C) I and II only — Statements I and II are correct. Under the proviso to Article 200 the Governor may return only a Bill other than a Money Bill, and even then the House is not bound to accept his suggestions.
